

posted by Sharon Bahr on Thu, 09/20/2012 - 11:00am

The 2012 state-level winners of the Credit Union National Association's (CUNA) Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Award, Louise Herring Award for Philosophy in Action, and the Desjardins Financial Education Award (Youth and Adult) will be announced at this year's Convention & Exposition (October 2-3) in Branson, MO. The award ceremony will take place Thursday, October 4, from 7:30-8:30 during breakfast.

Find out who earned first and second place and honorable mention at the Convention & Exposition. Until then, the credit unions are listed below in alphabetical order. The following credit unions submitted entries in different assets sizes for the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Award:

- Central Missouri Community*
- CommunityAmerica*
- Electro Savings*
- First Community*
- Mazuma*
- Mid Missouri*
- Neighbors*
- Raytown-Lee's Summit Community*
- St. Louis Community*
- United*
- United Labor*
- Vantage*

Award winner*

The following credit unions submitted entries in different assets sizes for the Louise Herring Award for Philosophy in Action:

- Central Missouri Community*
- CommunityAmerica*
- Electro Savings*
- First Community*
- Mazuma*
- Neighbors*
- Raytown-Lee's Summit Community
- St. Louis Community*
- United Labor*
- Vantage*

Award winner*

The following credit unions submitted entries in different assets sizes for the Desjardins Adult Financial Education Award:

- CommunityAmerica*
- Electro Savings*
- St. Louis Community*
- United Labor*
- Vantage*

Award winner*

The following credit unions submitted entries in different assets sizes for the Desjardins Youth Financial Education Award:

- CommunityAmerica*
- First Community*
- Mazuma*
- Raytown-Lee's Summit Community*

Award winner*

Entries from the all of the first place winners have been forwarded to CUNA to compete against credit unions from across the country in their asset categories.

